Eden Deserted---or Paradise Lost.

A TRAGEDY.

TELL me who is Mr. Eden,
'Tis a face I never saw?
One of family and breeding,
Young, but learned in the law.

Auckland is his noble father,
Marlborough is his patron grand,
Bubbles he is sent to gather,
And to form a rope of sand!

What! tho' learned Blackstone 'tends him,
Mavor prays for his success,
Atkins bothers, swears, defends him,
When he gets into a mess!

While Elias fawns and courts him,
Sends his Sons the city o'er,
While Sir Edward smiles, supports him,
Grosvenor frowns, feels very SORE!

Hall comes in, a storm is BREWING—
Joy is gone—they've started Wright—
Eden's lost—confusion—ruin—
I shall have no sleep to night!

I am weary of elections;
Tho' I serve a noble peer;
Blackstone's father, in his sections,
Says they should not interfere.

Then, against the constitution
Never more will I rebel;
Pardon me for my intrusion,
Farewell Eden—friends farewell!
